The U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) provides for reduced fees for business concerns qualifying as small business entities. Please review the following to determine whether or not your company qualifies as a small business entity. According to USPTO regulations, a small business entity is a business concern whose total number of employees does not exceed 500 persons.

The number of employees of the business concern mentioned above, including those of its affiliates, does not exceed 500 persons: ☒ Yes or ☐ No. Total number of employees of the business concern: 16. For purposes of this inquiry (1) the number of employees of the business concern is the average over the previous fiscal year of the concern of the persons employed on a full-time, part-time, or temporary basis during each of the pay periods of the fiscal year, and (2) concerns are affiliates of each other when either, directly or indirectly, one concern controls or has the power to control the other, or a third party or parties controls or has the power to control both.

Rights under contract or law have been conveyed to and remain with the business concern identified above with regard to the invention described in the above identified patent application:

☒ Yes or ☐ No. If rights have been conveyed to another entity, does that entity have 500 employees or fewer? ☐ Yes or ☐ No. ☒ N/A

I acknowledge the duty to file, in this application or patent, notification of any change in status resulting in loss of entitlement to small entity status prior to paying, or at the time of paying, the earliest of the issue fee or any maintenance fee due after the date on which status as a small entity is no longer appropriate (37 CFR 1.28(b)).
